

Emergency Medicine PGY I Year
Schedule Choice
Request Form
2012-2013

Please complete this form and return with your contract.

2012-2013 Academic Year

Name:

Being an Emergency Medicine PGY I, your schedule has been determined for you by the AOA, your Program Director- Alan Janssen, D.O. and Susan Enright, D.O. – PGY I Director.

Your schedule will consist of the following rotations, but not necessarily in this order:

4 months - Emergency Medicine

1mo. of MICU

1 mo. of Block Nights

2-weeks Ophtho, 2-weeks Anesthesia

1 mo. of OB

1 mo. of General Medicine

1 mo. Peds ED at Hurley

1mo. General Surgery

1mo. Surgery Sub-specialty. Your only schedule choice is your SSP month. Please refer to the attached list of choices. Should you have any questions please contact Mary Kay at (810)606-6372.

SSP Choice: (1 month)

Choice #1 _____ Choice #2 _____

Time off: For any needed days off of your service you must request time/days with your program director/chiefs/coordinator. See policy in the EM manual.

PGY I Scheduling Choices
Genesys Regional Medical Center for MSP, SSP, Selective

Choices are:

MSP (medicine sub-specialty) Cardiology, Endocrinology, Geriatrics, GI, Hematology, Infectious Disease, Nephrology, Neurology, Pulmonary, and Rheumatology

SSP (Surgery sub-specialty) Anesthesia, General Surgery, Gyn-Surgery, Neuro-Surgery, Obstetrics, Ophthalmology, Orthopedics, and Urology, Cardiovascular & Thoracic Surgery

Selective – Emergency Medicine, Family Medicine, OMM, Pathology, Pediatrics, Radiology, Units and any MSP or SSP.

Elective – This is your choice. This rotation can be done either in house or out. If you would like to go outside to complete it, you need to contact the other institution ASAP to set it up. Once you get the okay, you must complete the “Out Rotation” form located in Med. Ed. Once completed you must turn it in to your program coordinator/assistant to get necessary signatures. They will then gather the items needed from your file (license, ACLS, BLS, etc.) and send them out. This should be done within your first rotation, since rotations get booked up fast.

Should you have any concerns regarding this form – please contact Suzanne Booker at (810)606-5989 or (800)233-2863.